Joel T. Cawthorn

This splendid citizen died in a Lynchburg hospital early last Saturday morning in the 78th year of his age. He was a son of the late Rev. John H. Cawthorn, of this county, and is survived by his widow, who lives in this county, and one sister, Mrs Kate Cheatham, of Campbell county. The deceased had been in comparatively good health until a few weeks ago, when he entered hospital for an operation, and his friends expected him to return home in a short while after his operation, but heart trouble took him away suidenly. He was reared in this county, and had none to speak ill of him. He was a member of Liberty church here for 52 years, a Deacon for 41 years, and had served his church as treasurer for 25 years. He was a Confederate soldier, and being possessed of a retentive memory, often told war stories to his friends. He was always cheerful, thoughtful and kind hearted, and lived a life worthy of emulation,

His remains were brought here Sunday morning and Rev. L. R. Thornhill, his old pastor, preached his funeral to a very large congregation at Liberty church at 11 a. m, being assisted by his present pastor, Rev. H. P. East. His remains were then interred in the family square at Liberty cemetery

Napoleon Bonaparte Almond

The life of this old gentleman took its flight Wednesday and the last roll call of a gallant and faithful Confederate soldier was sounded. The deceased was in his 78th year. was reared in Campbell county, but had lived here for many years, and was liked by many friends who knew his condition and temperament. He is survived by his widow and several children. Rev. H. P East conducted the burial service and his remains were interred at old Herman cemetery.

Circuit Court

Judge Hundley opened court here Friday and left on the morning train Saturday for home. The grand jury indicted Mr. Jas. Owen for selling liquor and upon his plea of guilty was fined $50 and given 30 days in jail. A motion to suspend the jail sentence was resisted by the Attorney for Commonwealth and all efforts of his attorney were unavailing. Jail sentences and no suspensions will be insisted upon hereafter in all liquor violations by the Attorney for the Commonwealth, it is said. Violators of the prohibition law will take due notice. In the meantime Mr. Owen is the first offender of the law in this county to serve a jail sentence.

An indictment was also found against John Tweedy for perjury.

In Memoriam

In sad remembrance of my dear son, H L. Dove, who departed this life two years ago to day, December 5, 1918.

Dear is the grave in which my boy is laid,
Flowers will fade, wither and die
Others will forget him,
But never will I.

Attractively decorated with palms, ferns and blended colors, the home of Mr. and Mrs. S L Ferguson was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering of about 75 of Appomattox's young ladies and men Friday night, the event being a pre birthday party of their daughter, Rachel, who became sixteen years of age on Sunday, December 5. The evening was filled with novel party games and music, after which refreshments were heartily enjoyed by the happy participants.

Bowling Green History.

In 1732 Bowling Green (7 acres) in New York city was ordered fenced in. It was leased at one peppercorn a year for 11 years to three citizens for a private bowling green, the lease being renewed for a second 11 years at 20 shillings per annum.—Automobile Blue Book.

Club Enrollment

During the month of December and January I hope to visit every school in the county for the purpose of enrolling club members. I am anxious that by the end of another year Appomattox county will rank along with the other counties in club work. I am making this announcement to urge parents to talk the matter over with their boys and girls, and encourage them to join one of the following clubs — Corn, Poultry or Pig

We did not have a large enrollment this year; however, the work done by the members as a whole was excellent. The club exhibits at our County Fair speaks for itself, and with only two pigs at the State Fair we won a second and ninth prize.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

I know of nothing more timely than to call the attention of the farmers to large sums they are losing in the depreciation of their machinery by leaving it exposed to the weather. I have noticed during the last month several binders and mowers and many other farm implements exposed to the weather A large percentage of these can be found where they were last used Let me urge that every farmer take time to collect his tools and machinery and put them under cover. The metal parts should be oiled to prevent rust and when more time is available it will be profitable to paint the wooden parts to avoid decay.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
